Sermon Synopsis ...

Jesus asks many questions in the gospel narratives, none more important than this: “What do you want from me?” Our answers to this existential question may get at the reality of our faith and discipleship. Are we asking Jesus for a little of this and a little of that to make our lives more comfortable, less burdensome? Or are we asking for something only Jesus can give: the healing of our deepest wounds, our most insidious sins? In asking this question, Jesus points us to the real meaning of discipleship. What are you really after?

Hands Across the Waters Beneficiary ...

Adopt-a-Senior Program ...

Attention, families with young children. We need your help kick-starting the new “Adopt-a-Senior” program at GLC. We are looking for kids who are willing to send snail mail regularly to some of the more isolated seniors in our church congregation. This is a fun opportunity to brighten someone’s day with homemade artwork, a card, a letter, or even a printed photo. If you would like to be part of this program, please contact Bryan Carli at mrbyancarli@gmail.com.
