Sermon Synopsis ... Pastor Kevin continues with part 2 of his series, “Tell the Truth but Tell it Slant”. This week we will examine a quote from Abraham Joshua Heschel that tells the truth about the eclipse of religion in the modern world. As Heschel explains, “It is customary to blame secular science and anti-religious philosophy for the eclipse of religion in modern society. It would be more honest to blame religion for its own defeats.”

Prayer List

- Anonymous, family whose child is involved with drugs.
- Mary Churchill, dealing with health challenges.

Fall Family Gathering – Sunday, October 17, at 11:00 a.m. ... The children’s Sabbath School classes would like to revitalize the annual tradition of gathering at a pumpkin farm! Join us at Swans Trail Farms, 7301 Rivershore Rd, Snohomish, WA 98290. We would love to see you there! Please purchase your tickets in advance for the 11:00am time slot at www.swanstrailfarms.com. General admission (ages 3+) is $18. Ages 2 and under are free. For more information email Bryan Carli at MrBryanCarli@gmail.com.

Church Secretary Position Available ... Office Administrator Emeritus Carolyn Lacy is eager to return to retirement, and the church is searching for her replacement. This is a part-time job (20 hrs/wk), but there is a possibility that it could be combined with similar requirements at Cypress School and the Green Lake Foundation to be a full-time job. Most, but not all of the tasks, can be done remotely. Applicants should have experience with the Microsoft Office Suite and strong communication skills. For a complete job description, contact the church office at glcsda@gmail.com or Matt Rickaby, matt.rickaby@gmail.com.

Adult Sabbath School Quarterlies for October through December are available now and can be picked up from the church office.
