Sermon Synopsis ... Before judging someone for not believing in God, we should seek to understand the “god” they don’t believe in. We need to stop arguing for the existence of God until we can understand the true character of God. In many cases, we should be affirming people’s unbelief rather than arguing against it. Join us this week as we look closely at the mercy of God.

Prayer List

Mary Churchill, dealing with health challenges.

Mark Dodd, health problems.

Doris Fultz, recovering from a broken leg.

Huldah Omondi, recovering from eye surgery.

Davy Reid, 6-year-old Dunston family friend, brain surgery—his 40th brain shunt procedure. The family appreciates the GLC prayers.

GLC Childcare and Preschool workers, to be safe working with children.

Ronald McDonald House ... Matthew 25:40, “The King will reply, ‘Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me’.” We can do our part benefiting Ronald McDonald House. Your gifts and donations are greatly appreciated at <http://greenlakesda.org/give>.

Young Adults ... The Meridian House will be hosting a young adult Christmas party on Saturday evening, December 11. We’ll begin with snacks and sundown worship at the Meridian House at 4:00 p.m., followed by ice skating and then more snacks and games back at the house afterward. If you would like to attend the ice-skating part of the evening, please contact Emily (emilykurlinski@gmail.com) no later than Tuesday, December 7, so that we can finalize our group reservation.

Hands Across the Waters Beneficiary ... For the months of November through January, donations will go to A Better World (ABW) in order to build classroom desks for students in Rwanda, Tanzania, Afghanistan, and Kenya. <https://www.abwcanada.ca/project/school-desks/>.
