MORNING PRAYER Shelly LaGrone

*Our Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and
Forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.
Amen.*

Sermon Synopsis ... The story of Jephthah's daughter found in Judges 11 is well known as one of the most significant texts of terror. It is incredibly difficult to find light in such tragedy. However, we should be reminded that even when the point of the story is unclear, we can look to Jesus for our explanation. As for this nameless daughter? Well, she certainly has a name!
